Item 308 ACCESS SPECIAL ROUTING

Terms and Conditions 308.2

- (a) Access Special Routing service shall be available only where sufficient and diverse facilities and equipment exist. In cases where the Carrier does not have sufficient and diverse facilities and equipment, DS-1 and DS-3 Access Special Routing may be provided on the basis of costs incurred. C
- (b) Customers subscribing to Access Special Routing shall have a minimum of two (2) DS-1 or DS-3 access channels with the Carrier, i.e., 1 primary access and 1 alternate access. The primary DS-1 or DS-3 Access Channel or a DS-1 or DS-3 access channel may be provided by the Carrier through other standard service offerings or Special Assembly arrangement. C
- (c) Access Special Routing shall be provided, at the customer's service location, from a single building entrance duct. In cases where the customer requests a separate building entrance duct for each routing, the additional building entrance shall be provided at an additional charge based on the expense incurred. C
- (d) When it is necessary for the Carrier to install special equipment or to incur an unusual expense to establish Access Special Routing, the customer shall pay an additional charge based on the equipment installed or the expense incurred. C
- (e) Each Carrier shall provide Access Special Routing service to the Network Interface Demarcation Point (NIDP) at a customer's premises. The NIDP shall be located at a single customer location mutually agreed upon by the customer and the Carrier. C

(g) For Access Special Routing service provided in association with DS-1 Access or DS-3 Access, the following conditions shall apply in addition to the rates, charges and terms and conditions contained in Tariff Items 302 and 303.

– A DS-1 Access or DS-3 Access originated from a different multiplexer than that of the primary DS-1 Access or DS-3 Access:

i. The alternate access is considered to be a part of a separate channel group from that of the primary DS-1 Access or DS-3 Access. In these cases, separate DS-1 Access or DS-3 Access Provisioning Charges shall apply to the alternate access and the primary access routings.

ii. The discounted rate levels to be applied to the contracted DS-1 Access or DS-3 Access in the alternate access routing shall be determined independently from those in the primary access routing.
