Shop your way @ The Source and SAVE with your Employee discount!

As Canada's largest tech retailer, The Source is your destination for the latest tech from amazing brands like Samsung, Bose, Fitbit and more.

As a Bell retiree, there are many advantages to shopping at The Source including:

- Special offers and everyday discounts—look for “YOU SAVE” on eligible products to see your savings.
- Get Whole Home Tech support – unlimited support for all your tech at home, old or new, regardless of where it's purchased.

Plus, we make buying tech easy, safe and convenient with many shopping options:

- Shop safely in-store
- Book an appointment with an Associate
- Shop online and get your order delivered to your door
- Use Free Store Pick Up
- We're also available by phone or chat, to answer any questions you may have about the right tech

As a BCE retiree*, you can take advantage of front of the line access to new must-have tech, extended returns and up to 30% off on most regular and sale-priced products.

- + To see prices that include your EPP discount, sign in or create your account at TheSource.ca/EPP-register.

What's the deal?

Want to know what your employee discount is on a particular product? Just log in, find the product page, and any applicable discounts and savings will be displayed automatically. If there's no discount displayed, that item is excluded from the Employee Discount Program.

- + For program details, please read The Source EPP FAQ.

* Bell Canada pensioners who retired with at least 80 points at age 55 or older. Pensioners from participating companies who retired after November 28, 2003 with at least 80 points at age 55 or older. New: you are also eligible if you were 55 or over, with at least 15 years of net credited service (NCS) when you left Bell after January 1st, 2021. You are not eligible for EDP if your departure from Bell was the result of a termination for cause.

The Source Family Savings Card

EPP-eligible retirees* can share their savings with immediate family members including dependants, anyone living in your household, and parents.

- + For program details, please read The Source EPP FAQ.

Download your retiree ID card now!

To help you take advantage of discounts and offers with our participating retailers, a retiree ID card with your name, employee number, and retirement date is available on the Benefits site at Bell.ca/mybenefits.

Bell

Save on your Bell services with the Employee Discount Plan

If you are an eligible Bell pensioner*, you can save 35% on Bell Internet, Mobility, TV, Home phone and Bell Smart Home services through the Bell Employee Discount Plan (EDP). The discount applies to most recurring and one-time charges, with a few exceptions (see below).

You can also get the discount on services for your spouse and eligible dependants, as long as your household has at least one residential service under your name and all of the accounts are linked to your bill.

Promotional offer

Please note that the EDP cannot be combined with any acquisition or retention offers. EDP discounts will become active only after an acquisition offer has expired. The EDP does not give rise to a taxable benefit, as confirmed by the Canada Revenue Agency.

Pensioners currently benefiting from the cash compensation program paid on their monthly pension (which is a taxable benefit) will need to choose between maintaining this option or the 35% employee discount plan on eligible services.

Bell reserves the right to change or modify the EDP product and services eligibility at any time.

Which dependants are eligible?

You can get the Bell employee discount on services for:

- Your natural or legally adopted child, legal ward or stepchild, including children of a common law spouse, who are:
 - Financially dependent on you;
 - Unmarried and normally live with you, except while away at school;

How do I sign up for EDP?

To enroll in the Bell EDP, please contact Employee Services by email at employee.services@bell.ca or by phone at 1-888-391-0005. After selecting your language, choose option 2 (discount plan). The employee discount will apply one to two billing cycles following the enrolment requests and is not retroactive.

When ordering new Bell services or changing your plan, please call us again to update your account.

To order new Bell services, please visit bell.ca or drop by a Bell or The Source location. You can also call 310-BELL for TV, Internet and Home Phone or 1-888-466-2453 for Mobility support.

- Under age 18, or under age 25 if attending an accredited educational institution as a full-time student.

- Your parents, if they live with you and meet the Canada Revenue Agency's requirements for an Eligible Dependant.
- Your spouse or common-law partner, if you are legally married or have lived together in a conjugal relationship for at least 12 consecutive months and been publically presented as a common law spouse or partner.

How many accounts can I have on the discount plan?

You can have up to 8 Bell Mobility services, and up to 4 of each residential services discounted through the Bell EDP – for you and up to 7 dependants.

* Bell Canada pensioners who retired with at least 80 points at age 55 or older. Pensioners from participating companies who retired after November 28, 2003 with at least 80 points at age 55 or older. New: you are also eligible if you were 55 or over, with at least 15 years of net credited service (NCS) when you left Bell after January 1st, 2021. You are not eligible for EDP if your departure from Bell was the result of a termination for cause.
