Bell

Save on your Bell services with the Employee Discount Plan

If you are an eligible Bell pensioner*, you can save 35% on Bell Internet, Mobility, TV and Home phone services through the Bell Employee Discount Plan (EDP). The discount applies to most recurring and one-time charges, with a few exceptions (see below).

You can also get the discount on services for your spouse and eligible dependants, as long as your household has at least one residential service under your name and all of the accounts are linked to your bill.

Promotional offer

Please note that the EDP cannot be combined with any acquisition or retention offers. EDP discounts will become active only after an acquisition offer has expired. The EDP does not give rise to a taxable benefit, as confirmed by the Canada Revenue Agency.

The monetary compensation offered to employees and retirees was withdrawn in August 2024. In the interest of ensuring equity, all eligible employees and retirees must now subscribe to the 35% employee discount program. This promotes the purchase of Bell products and services, and ensures the perenity of the company you contributed to build.

Which dependants are eligible?

You can get the Bell employee discount on services for:

- Your natural or legally adopted child, legal ward or stepchild, including children of a common law spouse, who are:
 - Financially dependent on you;
 - Unmarried and normally live with you, except while away at school;
 - Under age 18, or under age 25 if attending an accredited educational institution as a full-time student.

How do I sign up for EDP?

Please note that the hours for the Employee Discount Plan (EDP) team have changed. We are now available from 10 am to 3:30 pm eastern time. To register for the EDP, or if you have any questions, please send an email to askhr@bell.ca and our team will get back to you as soon as possible. You can always contact us by calling 1-888-391-0005, selecting your language and choosing option 2.

The employee discount will apply one to two billing cycles following the enrolment requests and is not retroactive.

When ordering new Bell services or changing your plan, please call us again to update your account.

To order new Bell services, please visit bell.ca or drop by a Bell location. You can also call 310-BELL for TV, Internet and Home Phone or 1-888-466-2453 for Mobility support.

- Your parents, if they live with you and meet the Canada Revenue Agency's requirements for an Eligible Dependant.
- Your spouse or common-law partner, if you are legally married or have lived together in a conjugal relationship for at least 12 consecutive months and been publicly presented as a common law spouse or partner.

through the Bell EDP – for you and up to 7 dependants.

* Bell Canada pensioners who retired with at least 80 points at age 55 or older. Pensioners from participating companies who retired after November 28, 2003, with at least 80 points at age 55 or older.

New: you are also eligible if you were 55 or over, with at least 15 years of net credited service (NCS) when you left Bell after January 1st, 2021. You are not eligible for EDP if your departure from Bell was the result of a termination for cause.
