SUMMARY OF CIRCULAR

The following is a summary of certain information contained in this Circular and should be read in conjunction with, and is qualified in its entirety by, the more detailed information appearing in this Circular. Shareholders are urged to read this Circular and the appendices attached hereto carefully and in their entirety. Certain capitalized terms used in this summary are defined in the Glossary of Terms above.

Date, Time and Place of Meeting

The Meeting will be held at 9:30 a.m. (Atlantic time) on October 31, 2014 at The Lord Nelson Hotel, 1515 South Park Street, Halifax, Nova Scotia, unless otherwise adjourned or postponed.

Record Date

The Board of Directors has provided notice of and fixed the Record Date (being September 30, 2014) for the purposes of determining Shareholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the Meeting.

Purpose of the Meeting

The Meeting has been called to consider and, if determined advisable, pass, with or without amendment, the Amalgamation Resolution.

Background to the Amalgamation

On July 23, 2014, the Company, Prefco and BCE entered into the Support Agreement pursuant to which, among other things, Prefco agreed to support the Offer.

On August 14, 2014, BCE mailed the Offer Circular to Shareholders, thereby commencing its offer to exchange all of the issued and outstanding Preferred Shares, on the basis of: (a) one BCE Series AM Preferred Share for each Series A Preferred Share; (b) one BCE Series AO Preferred Share for each Series C Preferred Share; and (c) one BCE Series AQ Preferred Share for each Series E Preferred Share.

Immediately following the Expiry Time, BCE took up 8,373,035 Series A Preferred Shares, 3,403,912 Series C Preferred Shares and 6,611,910 Series E Preferred Shares, representing approximately 72.7% of the aggregate issued and outstanding Preferred Shares, that were validly deposited under the Offer.

Pursuant to the Support Agreement and further to BCE's take-up under the Offer, BCE agreed to use commercially reasonable efforts to acquire the remainder of the Preferred Shares by way of a subsequent acquisition transaction for consideration per Preferred Share of each series not less than the consideration paid by BCE for Preferred Shares of such series under the Offer, and Prefco agreed to effect such subsequent acquisition transaction.

The purpose of the Amalgamation is to allow BCE to acquire all of the remaining Preferred Shares that were not tendered to the Offer.

See the section of this Circular entitled, "Information Regarding the Amalgamation – Background to the Amalgamation".

Terms of the Amalgamation

If the Amalgamation Resolution is approved and the conditions set out in the Amalgamation Agreement are satisfied, at the Effective Time, Prefco and Newco will amalgamate and continue as one corporation, Amalco, under the name Bell Aliant Preferred Equity Inc. As a result of the Amalgamation, among other things, the property of each of Prefco and Newco will become the property of Amalco and Amalco will continue to be liable for the obligations of each of Prefco and Newco.

At the Effective Time, each Preferred Share (other than those held by Newco or Dissenting Shareholders) will automatically be exchanged as follows: (a) one BCE Series AM Preferred Share for each Series A Preferred Share; (b) one BCE Series AO Preferred Share for each Series C Preferred Share; and (c) one BCE Series AQ Preferred Share for each Series E Preferred Share.

See the section of this Circular entitled, “Information Regarding the Amalgamation – Terms of the Amalgamation”.

Procedure for Receiving Consideration

A Letter of Transmittal (printed on yellow paper) is enclosed with this Circular for use by Registered Shareholders (other than Dissenting Shareholders and Newco) for the surrender of Preferred Share Certificates to the Depositary at an address of the Depositary set out in the Letter of Transmittal. Provided a Registered Shareholder has delivered the Letter of Transmittal, duly completed and executed in accordance with the instructions on such form or in otherwise acceptable form, together with all Preferred Share Certificate(s) representing his, her or its Preferred Shares and any other document or instrument that is required to be delivered and surrendered, BCE and Amalco shall cause the Depositary, after the Effective Time, to deliver, the consideration that the Registered Shareholder is entitled to receive in connection with the Amalgamation. If the Amalgamation is not completed, the Depositary will return the surrendered Preferred Share Certificates to the Shareholder. Until surrendered, each Preferred Share Certificate which immediately prior to the Effective Time represented Preferred Shares shall be deemed after the Effective Time to represent only the right, upon surrender, to be delivered the consideration to which the registered holder of that certificate is entitled in connection with the Amalgamation.

Non-Registered Shareholders are not required to take any action in order to receive the consideration upon completion of the Amalgamation. Consideration to be paid to Non-Registered Shareholders is expected to be credited to the Non-Registered Shareholder’s Intermediary’s account through the procedures in place for such purposes between CDS and such Intermediaries. Non-Registered Shareholders should contact their Intermediary if they have any questions regarding this process.

See the section of this Circular entitled, “Information Regarding the Amalgamation – Procedure for Receiving Consideration”.

Approval of the Board of Directors

On July 22, 2014, the Board of Directors (with the exception of the Interested Directors), upon the unanimous recommendation of the Prefco Special Committee made after consultation with its financial and legal advisors, and the receipt of a report of the Prefco Special Committee based on, among other things, the Fairness Opinion, and based on its review and evaluation of the Offer on the terms set forth in the Support Agreement, had unanimously determined that the consideration to be received under the Offer was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Preferred Shares and, accordingly, had unanimously recommended that Shareholders accept the Offer and tender their Preferred Shares to the Offer.

The consideration per Preferred Share that Shareholders (other than Newco and Dissenting Shareholders) will receive in connection with the Amalgamation is equal in value to, and is in the same form as, the consideration per Preferred Share paid to Shareholders who deposited their Preferred Shares under the Offer.

After careful consideration, the Board of Directors has unanimously determined that the Amalgamation is in the best interest of Prefco and has determined to recommend to Shareholders to vote FOR the Amalgamation Resolution.

See the section of this Circular entitled, “Information Regarding the Amalgamation – Approval of the Board of Directors”.

Approval of Shareholders

The Amalgamation will not become effective until Shareholders have approved the Amalgamation Resolution in accordance with applicable Law and Prefco has filed the articles of Amalgamation. The text of the Amalgamation Resolution is set forth in Appendix A to this Circular.

For the Amalgamation Resolution to be approved in accordance with applicable Law, the Amalgamation Resolution must be passed by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the votes cast by Shareholders present in person or by proxy at the Meeting and entitled to vote at the Meeting. BCE has indicated that it will vote all of the Preferred Shares held by it in favour of the Amalgamation Resolution, which will be sufficient to approve the Amalgamation Resolution in accordance with applicable Law.

Bell Aliant GP, being the sole holder of all of the issued and outstanding Prefco Common Shares, has approved the Amalgamation and all transactions contemplated thereby.

See the section of this Circular entitled, “Legal Aspects – Shareholder Approval”.

Dissent Rights

Pursuant to Section 190 of the CBCA, a Registered Shareholder may dissent in respect of the Amalgamation Resolution. If the Amalgamation is completed, Dissenting Shareholders who have complied with the procedures set forth in the CBCA will be entitled to be paid the fair value of their Preferred Shares. A summary of the dissent procedure is set forth in Appendix C and the text of Section 190 of the CBCA is set forth in Appendix D to this Circular. Failure to adhere strictly to the requirements set forth in Section 190 of the CBCA may result in the loss or unavailability of any right to dissent.

Certain Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations

A Resident Holder (other than a Resident Dissenting Holder) will not realize a capital gain (or capital loss) on a disposition of Preferred Shares pursuant to the Amalgamation.

A Resident Dissenting Holder generally will realize a capital gain (or capital loss) and may also realize interest income (if awarded by the court) on a disposition of Preferred Shares pursuant to the exercise of its statutory dissent rights.

A Non-Resident Holder (other than a Non-Resident Dissenting Holder) will not realize a capital gain (or capital loss) on a disposition of Preferred Shares pursuant to the Amalgamation.

A Non-Resident Dissenting Holder generally will not be taxable on any capital gain (or capital loss) realized on a disposition of Preferred Shares pursuant to the exercise of its statutory dissent rights unless such shares constitute “taxable Canadian property” other than “treaty-protected property”. Such a Non-Resident Dissenting Holder may realize interest income (if awarded by the court) on such disposition; however, such interest generally will not be subject to Canadian withholding tax.

The foregoing is only a brief summary of certain Canadian federal income tax consequences and is qualified by the description of certain Canadian federal income tax considerations described in the section of the Circular entitled, “Certain Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations”. Shareholders are urged to consult their own tax advisors to determine the particular tax consequences to them of a disposition of Preferred Shares pursuant to the Amalgamation or the exercise of statutory dissent rights.

SPECIAL BUSINESS TO BE CONDUCTED AT THE MEETING

The Meeting has been called to consider and, if determined advisable, pass, with or without amendment, the Amalgamation Resolution.

INFORMATION REGARDING THE AMALGAMATION

Background to the Amalgamation

As at the date of the Offer, BCE was the Company's largest shareholder and held, together with its Affiliates, 100,376,270 Common Shares, representing 44.06% of the issued and outstanding Common Shares.

On July 23, 2014, the Company, Prefco and BCE entered into the Support Agreement pursuant to which, among other things, Prefco agreed to support the Offer. For additional details with respect to the discussions between Prefco and BCE leading up to the announcement of the Offer, and the factors taken into consideration by the Board of Directors and the Prefco Special Committee in determining whether to support the Offer, see the sections entitled "Background to the Offer" in the Offer Circular and Directors' Circular, which are available under Prefco's profile on SEDAR at www.sedar.com.

On August 14, 2014, BCE mailed the Offer Circular to Shareholders, thereby commencing its offer to exchange all of the issued and outstanding Preferred Shares, on the basis of: (a) one BCE Series AM Preferred Share for each Series A Preferred Share; (b) one BCE Series AO Preferred Share for each Series C Preferred Share; and (c) one BCE Series AQ Preferred Share for each Series E Preferred Share.

The Offer expired at 5:00 p.m. (Eastern time) on September 19, 2014. Immediately following the Expiry Time, BCE took up 8,373,035 Series A Preferred Shares, 3,403,912 Series C Preferred Shares and 6,611,910 Series E Preferred Shares, representing approximately 72.7% of the aggregate issued and outstanding Preferred Shares, that were validly deposited under the Offer.

Pursuant to the Support Agreement and further to BCE's take-up under the Offer, BCE agreed to use commercially reasonable efforts to acquire the remainder of the Preferred Shares by way of a subsequent acquisition transaction for consideration per Preferred Share of each series not less than the consideration paid by BCE for Preferred Shares of such series under the Offer, and Prefco agreed to effect such subsequent acquisition transaction.

The purpose of the Amalgamation is to allow BCE to acquire all of the remaining Preferred Shares that were not tendered to the Offer.

Terms of the Amalgamation

If the Amalgamation Resolution is approved and the conditions set out in the Amalgamation Agreement are satisfied, at the Effective Time, Prefco and Newco will amalgamate and continue as one corporation, Amalco, under the name Bell Aliant Preferred Equity Inc. As a result of the Amalgamation, among other things, the property of each of Prefco and Newco will become the property of Amalco and Amalco will continue to be liable for the obligations of each of Prefco and Newco.

At the Effective Time, each Preferred Share (other than those held by Newco or Dissenting Shareholders) will automatically be exchanged as follows: (a) one BCE Series AM Preferred Share for each Series A Preferred Share; (b) one BCE Series AO Preferred Share for each Series C Preferred Share; and (c) one BCE Series AQ Preferred Share for each Series E Preferred Share. For greater certainty, no portion of the BCE Preferred Shares will be allocated as consideration for the disposition of the Guarantee Rights.

The Amalgamation Agreement

The following description of the Amalgamation Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the form of Amalgamation Agreement attached as Appendix B to this Circular. For a full description of the provisions of the Amalco Common Shares, see Schedule A to the Amalgamation Agreement.

Subject to obtaining the requisite Shareholder approvals, satisfaction of all other conditions as provided in the Amalgamation Agreement and the filing of articles of amalgamation, the Amalgamation will become effective at the Effective Time.

Prior to the Effective Time, BCE will transfer to Newco all of the Preferred Shares held by it in exchange for Newco Common Shares.

On the Effective Date:

- (a) each issued and outstanding Series A Preferred Share held by a Shareholder (other than those held by Dissenting Shareholders and by Newco) shall automatically be exchanged for one BCE Series AM Preferred Share;
- (b) each issued and outstanding Series C Preferred Share held by a Shareholder (other than those held by Dissenting Shareholders and by Newco) shall automatically be exchanged for one BCE Series AO Preferred Share;
- (c) each issued and outstanding Series E Preferred Share held by a Shareholder (other than those held by Dissenting Shareholders and by Newco) shall automatically be exchanged for one BCE Series AQ Preferred Share;
- (d) all of the issued and outstanding Newco Common Shares held by BCE shall be converted into the BCE Amount of Amalco Common Shares;
- (e) all of the issued and outstanding Prefco Common Shares held by Bell Aliant GP shall be converted into the Bell Aliant GP Amount of Amalco Common Shares;
- (f) each issued and outstanding Preferred Share held by Newco shall be cancelled without any repayment of capital in respect thereof; and
- (g) Dissenting Shareholders who have complied with the procedures set forth in the CBCA, if any, will be entitled to be paid the fair value of the Preferred Shares held by such Dissenting Shareholders, and the Preferred Shares registered in the name of such Dissenting Shareholders will be cancelled.

As of the Effective Time:

- (a) the amalgamation of Prefco and Newco and their continuance as one corporation becomes effective;
- (b) the property of each of Prefco and Newco (other than Preferred Shares held by Newco) continues to be the property of Amalco;
- (c) Amalco continues to be liable for the obligations of each of Prefco and Newco;
- (d) an existing cause of action, claim or liability to prosecution pending by or against Prefco or Newco is unaffected;
- (e) a civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding pending by or against Prefco or Newco may continue to be prosecuted by or against Amalco;
- (f) a conviction against, or ruling, order or judgment in favour of or against, Prefco or Newco may be enforced by or against Amalco; and
- (g) the articles of amalgamation are deemed to be the articles of incorporation of Amalco, and the certificate of amalgamation is deemed to be the certificate of incorporation of Amalco.

The Amalgamation Agreement is subject to several conditions, including that:

- (a) the Amalgamation Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including in particular the Amalgamation, shall have been approved by the Shareholders, the holder of the Prefco Common Shares and the shareholders of Newco, in accordance with the provisions of the CBCA and any other applicable regulatory requirements;
- (b) all necessary governmental or regulatory approvals and consents in respect of the Amalgamation shall have been obtained on terms satisfactory to Prefco and Newco or any applicable governmental or regulatory waiting period shall have expired or been terminated; and

- (c) no action, suit or proceeding shall have been threatened or taken before or by any court or tribunal and no law shall be proposed or enacted that would cease trade, enjoin, prohibit or impose material and adverse limitations, damages or conditions on the Amalgamation.

The Amalgamation Agreement may be terminated by Prefco or Newco at any time before the Effective Time.

Procedure for Receiving Consideration

A Letter of Transmittal (printed on yellow paper) is enclosed with this Circular for use by Registered Shareholders (other than Dissenting Shareholders and Newco) for the surrender of Preferred Share Certificates to the Depositary at an address of the Depositary set out in the Letter of Transmittal. Provided a Registered Shareholder has delivered the Letter of Transmittal, duly completed and executed in accordance with the instructions on such form or in otherwise acceptable form, together with all Preferred Share Certificate(s) representing his, her or its Preferred Shares and any other document or instrument that is required to be delivered and surrendered, BCE and Amalco shall cause the Depositary, after the Effective Time, to deliver, the consideration that the Registered Shareholder is entitled to receive in connection with the Amalgamation. If the Amalgamation is not completed, the Depositary will return the surrendered Preferred Share Certificates to the Shareholder. Until surrendered, each Preferred Share Certificate which immediately prior to the Effective Time represented Preferred Shares shall be deemed after the Effective Time to represent only the right, upon surrender, to be delivered the consideration to which the registered holder of that certificate is entitled in connection with the Amalgamation.

Non-Registered Shareholders are not required to take any action in order to receive the consideration upon completion of the Amalgamation. Consideration to be paid to Non-Registered Shareholders is expected to be credited to the Non-Registered Shareholder's Intermediary's account through the procedures in place for such purposes between CDS and such Intermediaries. Non-Registered Shareholders should contact their Intermediary if they have any questions regarding this process.

Approval of the Board of Directors

In considering whether to call the Meeting and present the Amalgamation Resolution to Shareholders, the Board of Directors noted that: (a) a subsequent acquisition transaction had been contemplated in the Offer Circular and in subsequent communications by BCE to Shareholders in connection with the Offer; (b) BCE has a sufficient number of Preferred Shares to requisition a meeting of Shareholders under the CBCA; and (c) BCE has a sufficient number of Preferred Shares to pass the Amalgamation Resolution within 120 days of the Expiry Time.

On July 22, 2014, the Board of Directors (with the exception of the Interested Directors), upon the unanimous recommendation of the Prefco Special Committee made after consultation with its financial and legal advisors, and the receipt of a report of the Prefco Special Committee based on, among other things, the Fairness Opinion, and based on its review and evaluation of the Offer on the terms set forth in the Support Agreement, had unanimously determined that the consideration to be received under the Offer was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Preferred Shares and, accordingly, had unanimously recommended that Shareholders accept the Offer and tender their Preferred Shares to the Offer.

The consideration per Preferred Share that Shareholders (other than Newco and Dissenting Shareholders) will receive in connection with the Amalgamation is equal in value to, and is in the same form as, the consideration per Preferred Share paid to Shareholders who deposited their Preferred Shares under the Offer.

After careful consideration, the Board of Directors has unanimously determined that the Amalgamation is in the best interest of Prefco and has determined to recommend to Shareholders to vote FOR the Amalgamation Resolution.

Approval of Shareholders

The Amalgamation will not become effective until Shareholders have approved the Amalgamation Resolution in accordance with applicable Law. The text of the Amalgamation Resolution is set forth in Appendix A to this Circular.

For the Amalgamation Resolution to be approved in accordance with applicable Law, the Amalgamation Resolution must be passed by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the votes cast by Shareholders. BCE has indicated that it will vote all of the Preferred Shares held by it in favour of the Amalgamation Resolution, which will be sufficient to approve the Amalgamation Resolution in accordance with applicable Law.

Bell Aliant GP, being the sole holder of all of the issued and outstanding Prefco Common Shares, has approved the Amalgamation and all transactions contemplated thereby.

Effect of the Amalgamation on Markets, Listings and Reporting Requirements

If permitted by applicable Law, subsequent to the completion of the Amalgamation, BCE intends to cause Amalco to apply to delist the Preferred Shares from the TSX and there will no longer be a trading market for the Preferred Shares.

In addition, if permitted by applicable Law, subsequent to the completion of the Amalgamation, BCE intends to cause Amalco and Bell Aliant GP, the parent company of Prefco, to cease to be reporting issuers or its equivalent under applicable Canadian Securities Laws.

Lost Preferred Share Certificates

A Shareholder who has lost or misplaced his, her or its Preferred Share Certificate(s) should complete the Letter of Transmittal as fully as possible and forward it, together with a letter describing the loss, to the Depositary. The Depositary will forward such letter to Prefco's registrar and transfer agent so that the transfer agent may provide replacement instructions. Such Shareholders should ensure that contact information is provided to the Depositary so that the Depositary may contact them.

Cancellation of Rights After Six Years

If any Shareholder fails for any reason to deliver to the Depositary for cancellation the certificates formerly representing Preferred Shares (or an affidavit of loss and bonding documents required by the Depositary), together with such other documents or instruments required for such Shareholder to receive consideration for Preferred Shares, on or before the sixth anniversary of the Effective Date, such Shareholder shall be deemed to have donated and forfeited to BCE on such sixth anniversary any consideration (together with any dividends and distributions with respect thereto, but net of amounts required to be withheld) held by the Depositary in trust for such Shareholder. Accordingly, any Shareholder who tenders certificates formerly representing Preferred Shares after the sixth anniversary of the Effective Date will not receive BCE Preferred Shares, will not own any interest in BCE and will not be paid any cash or other compensation.

Dissent Rights

Pursuant to Section 190 of the CBCA, a Registered Shareholder may dissent in respect of the Amalgamation Resolution. If the Amalgamation is completed, Dissenting Shareholders who have complied with the procedures set forth in the CBCA will be entitled to be paid the fair value of their Preferred Shares. A summary of the dissent procedure is set forth in Appendix C and the text of Section 190 of the CBCA is set forth in Appendix D to this Circular. Failure to adhere strictly to the requirements set forth in Section 190 of the CBCA may result in the loss or unavailability of any right to dissent.

GENERAL INFORMATION REGARDING THE MEETING

Solicitation of Proxies

This Circular is furnished in connection with the solicitation by management of proxies to be used at the Meeting to be held on October 31, 2014 at the time and place and for the purposes set forth in the Notice of Meeting accompanying this Circular. In addition to the solicitation of proxies by mail, officers, directors and regular employees of Prefco may, without additional compensation, solicit such proxies on behalf of management personally, by telephone, fax or other electronic means. The costs of solicitation by management will be borne by Prefco.

Appointment of Proxies

A form of Proxy (printed on WHITE paper) is enclosed. If it is not your intention to be present in person at the Meeting, you are asked to complete and return the Proxy in the envelope provided or to follow the instructions for submitting your Proxy by mail or fax as described below. The individuals named as proxyholders in the accompanying form of proxy are directors or officers of Prefco. A REGISTERED SHAREHOLDER WISHING TO APPOINT SOME OTHER PERSON (WHO NEED NOT BE A SHAREHOLDER) TO ATTEND AND ACT FOR THE REGISTERED SHAREHOLDER OR ON THE REGISTERED SHAREHOLDER'S BEHALF AT THE MEETING HAS THE RIGHT TO DO SO, BY INSERTING THE DESIRED PERSON'S NAME IN THE BLANK SPACE PROVIDED IN THE FORM OF PROXY OR BY COMPLETING ANOTHER VALID FORM OF PROXY.

A Proxy will not be valid unless the completed Proxy is received not less than 48 hours (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays) before the time for holding the Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof (which will be 9:30 a.m. (Atlantic time) on October 29, 2014 unless the Meeting is adjourned or otherwise postponed). Late proxies may be accepted or rejected by the Chairman of the Meeting in the Chairman's discretion, and the Chairman is under no obligation to accept or reject any particular late Proxy. Proxies may be submitted by mail to CST Trust Company at 320 Bay St., 3rd Floor, Toronto, Ontario, M5H 4A6, or, Proxy Department, P.O. Box 721, Agincourt, Ontario, M1S 0A1, or by fax to 1-866-781-3111 (toll free in Canada and the United States) or 1-416-368-2502 (outside of Canada and the United States).

Exercise of Vote by Proxy

Each Preferred Share entitles the registered holder thereof to one vote at the Meeting, and such vote may be given in person or by proxy. Preferred Shares may be voted for or against the Amalgamation Resolution, or the registered holder thereof may abstain from voting.

The Preferred Shares of a Registered Shareholder represented by a properly completed and signed Proxy appointing management nominees will be voted or withheld from voting in accordance with the instructions of the Registered Shareholder as specified in the Proxy. In the event that no specifications as to voting have been made by a Registered Shareholder to vote for or against the Amalgamation Resolution, the Preferred Shares represented by Proxies in favour of management's nominees will be voted in favour of the Amalgamation Resolution.

The accompanying Proxy (printed on WHITE paper) when properly completed and signed, confers discretionary authority upon the proxyholder named therein with respect to amendments to or variations of matters identified in the Notice of Meeting and with respect to any matters that may properly come before the Meeting. Management presently knows of no such amendments, variations or other matters which may come before the Meeting other than those referred to in the Notice of Meeting. If any such amendment, variation or other matter properly comes before the Meeting, it is the intention of the persons named in the enclosed Proxy to vote on such amendment, variation or other matter in accordance with their judgement. The securities represented by a Proxy will be voted or withheld from voting in accordance with the instructions of the securityholder on any ballot that may be called for and, if the securityholder specifies no choice with respect to any matter to be acted upon, the securities will be voted accordingly.

Revocation of Proxies

A Registered Shareholder who has delivered a Proxy for use at the Meeting may revoke it by an instrument in writing executed by the Registered Shareholder or by the Registered Shareholder's attorney authorized in writing or, if the Registered Shareholder is a corporation, by a duly authorized officer or attorney of the corporation, and delivered either (a) to the registered office of Prefco, at 7 South Maritime Centre, 1505 Barrington Street, Halifax, Nova Scotia, B3J 3K5, at any time up to and including the last Business Day preceding the day of the Meeting, (b) to CST Trust Company at 320 Bay St., 3rd Floor, Toronto, Ontario, M5H 4A6, or, Proxy Department, P.O. Box 721, Agincourt, Ontario, M1S 0A1 or, at any time up to and including the last Business Day preceding the day of the Meeting, or (c) to the Chairman of the Meeting on the day of the Meeting. A revocation of a Proxy does not affect any matter on which a vote has been taken prior to the revocation.

Non-Registered Shareholders

Only Registered Shareholders as of the close of business on the Record Date (being September 30, 2014) or the persons they appoint as their proxyholders are permitted to vote at the Meeting. A person who beneficially owns Preferred Shares through an intermediary (an “Intermediary”), such as an investment advisor, stockbroker, bank, trust company or other nominee, is not a Registered Shareholder (such a non-Registered Shareholder, a “Non-Registered Shareholder”).

The Meeting Materials are being sent to both Registered Shareholders and Non-Registered Shareholders. Non-Registered Shareholders fall into two categories – those who object to their identity being known to the issuers of securities which they own (“OBOs”) and those who do not object to their identity being made known to the issuers of the securities they own (“NOBOs”).

In accordance with the requirements of NI 54-101, Prefco has distributed copies of the Meeting Materials to Intermediaries for onward distribution to NOBOs and OBOs. Intermediaries are required to forward the Meeting Materials to NOBOs and OBOs unless the NOBO or OBO has waived the right to receive them. Very often, Intermediaries will use service companies such as Broadridge Investor Communications Solutions, Canada and its counterpart in the United States to forward the Meeting Materials to NOBOs and OBOs. With those Meeting Materials, Intermediaries or their service companies should provide NOBOs and OBOs of Preferred Shares with a request for a voting instruction form (“VIF”) which, when properly completed and signed by such NOBO or OBO and returned to the Intermediary or its service company, will constitute voting instructions which the Intermediary must follow. The purpose of this procedure is to permit NOBOs and OBOs to direct the voting of the Preferred Shares that they beneficially own. Prefco will pay for Intermediaries to deliver the Meeting Materials and request for a VIF to NOBOs and OBOs. NOBOs and OBOs should carefully follow the instructions of their Intermediary, including those regarding when and where the completed VIF is to be delivered.

Should a Non-Registered Shareholder wish to attend and vote at the Meeting in person (or have another person attend and vote on behalf of the Non-Registered Shareholder), such Non-Registered Shareholder should contact his or her Intermediary to determine the steps necessary to accomplish this.

Only Registered Shareholders have the right to revoke a Proxy. NOBOs and OBOs of Preferred Shares who wish to change their vote must, sufficiently in advance of the Meeting, arrange for their respective Intermediaries to change their vote and, if necessary, revoke their Proxy in accordance with the revocation procedures set out above.

Date, time and place of meeting

The Meeting will be held at 9:30 a.m. (Atlantic time) on October 31, 2014 at The Lord Nelson Hotel, 1515 South Park Street, Halifax, Nova Scotia, unless otherwise adjourned or postponed.

Record Date

The Board of Directors has provided notice of and fixed the Record Date (being September 30, 2014) for the purposes of determining holders of Preferred Shares entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the Meeting.

Voting at Meeting and Quorum

As at the Record Date, there were 11,500,000 Series A Preferred Shares, 4,600,000 Series C Preferred Shares and 9,200,000 Series E Preferred Shares issued and outstanding. Each Preferred Share entitles its holder to one vote at the Meeting. Registered Shareholders of record at the close of business on the Record Date will be entitled to vote at the Meeting, either in person or by Proxy. Non-Registered Shareholders should refer to the section of this Circular entitled, "Non-Registered Shareholders" for details as to how to vote their Preferred Shares.

For the Amalgamation Resolution to be approved in accordance with applicable Law, the Amalgamation Resolution must be passed by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the votes cast by Shareholders present in person or by proxy at the Meeting and entitled to vote at the Meeting. BCE has indicated that it will vote all 8,373,035 Series A Preferred Shares, 3,403,912 Series C Preferred Shares and 6,611,910 Series E Preferred Shares in favour of the Amalgamation Resolution, being those Preferred Shares held by it, which will be sufficient to approve the Amalgamation Resolution in accordance with applicable Law.

The Proxy delivered with this Circular provides a means for a Registered Shareholder to vote for or against the Amalgamation Resolution. The Proxy further provides that if a Registered Shareholder using the Proxy does not specify whether such Preferred Shares are to be voted for or against this resolution, the proxyholder will vote FOR the Amalgamation Resolution.

The quorum at the Meeting shall consist of two or more persons present in person, each being a Shareholder entitled to vote at the Meeting or a duly appointed proxyholder or representative for a Shareholder so entitled.

Principal Holders of Preferred Shares

As at the Record Date, the only person or company who, to the knowledge of the directors and executive officers of Prefco, beneficially owned, directly or indirectly, or controlled or directed, more than 10% of the issued and outstanding Preferred Shares is BCE and its Affiliates, which together held 8,373,035 Series A Preferred Shares, 3,403,912 Series C Preferred Shares and 6,611,910 Series E Preferred Shares, representing approximately 72.7% of the aggregate issued and outstanding Preferred Shares. BCE has advised Prefco that it intends to vote all Preferred Shares held by it in favour of the Amalgamation Resolution, which will be sufficient to approve the Amalgamation Resolution in accordance with applicable Law.

LEGAL ASPECTS

Shareholder Approval

Pursuant to the provisions of the CBCA, the approval of the Amalgamation Resolution will require the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the votes cast by Shareholders present in person or represented by proxy at the Meeting and entitled to vote at the Meeting. BCE has indicated that it will vote all of the Preferred Shares held by it in favour of the Amalgamation Resolution, which will be sufficient to approve the Amalgamation Resolution in accordance with applicable Law, including the CBCA. The complete text of the Amalgamation Resolution to be presented to the Meeting is set forth in Appendix A to this Circular.

Bell Aliant GP, being the sole holder of all of the issued and outstanding Prefco Common Shares, has approved the Amalgamation and all transactions contemplated thereby.

Authorized and Outstanding Share Capital

The authorized share capital of BCE consists of: (a) an unlimited number of BCE Common Shares; (b) an unlimited number of non-voting class B shares (the "BCE Class B Shares"); (c) an unlimited number of first preferred shares issuable in series (the "BCE First Preferred Shares"); and (d) an unlimited number of second preferred shares issuable in series (the "BCE Second Preferred Shares"), all without nominal or par value.

BCE Common Shares

Holders of BCE Common Shares are entitled to one vote per share at all meetings of shareholders, except meetings at which only holders of other classes or series of shares of BCE are entitled to vote. Subject to the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to any other class or series of shares of BCE ranking prior to the BCE Common Shares, holders of BCE Common Shares are entitled to receive such dividends payable in money, property, or by the issue of fully paid shares of BCE, as may be declared by the board of directors of BCE and to receive on an equal basis share for share with the BCE Class B Shares the remaining property of BCE upon the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of BCE. Holders of BCE Common Shares have no pre-emptive, redemption or conversion rights. As of October 2, 2014, BCE had outstanding approximately 828,263,168 BCE Common Shares and options to purchase 9,469,773 BCE Common Shares.

BCE Class B Shares

Holders of BCE Class B Shares are not entitled to receive notice of, or to attend or vote at, any meeting of shareholders, except as may be required by the CBCA. Subject to the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to any other class or series of shares of BCE ranking prior to the BCE Class B Shares, holders of BCE Class B Shares are entitled to receive such dividends payable in money, property, or by the issue of fully paid shares of BCE, as may be declared by the board of directors of BCE and to receive on an equal basis share for share with the holders of the BCE Common Shares the remaining property of BCE upon the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of BCE. A holder of BCE Class B Shares has the right, at his option, to convert at any time and from time to time, all or part of his BCE Class B Shares into BCE Common Shares, on the basis of one BCE Common Share for each BCE Class B Share. Holders of BCE Class B Shares have no pre-emptive or redemption rights. There are no BCE Class B Shares outstanding.

BCE First Preferred Shares

The board of directors of BCE may from time to time issue BCE First Preferred Shares in one or more series and determine for any such series its designation, number of shares and respective rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions. The BCE First Preferred Shares rank in priority to all other shares of BCE with respect to the payment of dividends and with respect to the distribution of assets in the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of BCE. Each series of BCE First Preferred Shares ranks in such respects on a parity with every other series of BCE First Preferred Shares.

Holders of BCE First Preferred Shares do not have the right to receive notice of, attend, or vote at any meeting of shareholders except to the extent otherwise provided in the articles of BCE with respect to any series of BCE First Preferred Shares, or when the holders of BCE First Preferred Shares are entitled to vote separately as a class or as a series as provided in the CBCA. In connection with any matter requiring the approval of BCE First Preferred Shares as a class, the holders of existing series of BCE First Preferred Shares which are then outstanding are entitled to one vote in respect of each BCE First Preferred Share held. BCE may, without the approval of the holders of BCE First Preferred Shares, as a class, create any new class of shares ranking on a parity with BCE First Preferred Shares. Holders of BCE First Preferred Shares have no pre-emptive rights. All outstanding BCE First Preferred Shares are fully-paid and non-assessable.

The provisions attaching to the BCE First Preferred Shares may be repealed, altered, modified or amended with such approval as may then be required by the CBCA, currently being at least two-thirds of the votes cast at a meeting or adjourned meeting of the holders of such shares duly called for the purpose and at which a quorum is present.

Terms of the BCE Preferred Shares

The BCE Preferred Shares have financial terms that are the same as those attached to the Preferred Shares for which they are being exchanged. The BCE Converted Preferred Shares into which each series of BCE Preferred Shares is convertible have financial terms that are the same of those attached to the Converted Preferred Shares into which each respective series of Preferred Shares is convertible. The holders of each series of BCE Preferred Shares, during the applicable Initial Fixed Rate Period for such series of BCE Preferred Shares, will be entitled to receive fixed, cumulative, preferential cash dividends, if, as and when declared by the board of directors of BCE, payable quarterly on the last day of March, June, September and December each year at an annual rate of $1.2125 per BCE Series AM Preferred Share, $1.1375 per BCE Series AO Preferred Share and $1.0625 per BCE Series AQ Preferred Share.

BCE believes that the non-financial terms and conditions of the BCE Preferred Shares and BCE Converted Preferred Shares, on the one hand, are substantially the same in all material respects as the non-financial terms and conditions of the corresponding classes of Preferred Shares and Converted Preferred Shares, on the other hand. The following is a summary of the principal differences in the non-financial terms and conditions attached to the BCE Preferred Shares and BCE Converted Preferred Shares, on the one hand, and the Preferred Shares and Converted Preferred Shares, on the other hand.

- Dividend Payment Date. Quarterly dividends payable on the BCE Preferred Shares and BCE Converted Preferred Shares are payable on the last day of March, June, September and December, whereas quarterly dividends payable on the Preferred Shares and Converted Preferred Shares are payable on the last business day of March, June, September and December.
- Certain Waivers. Under the terms of the BCE Preferred Shares and BCE Converted Preferred Shares, holders of a majority of the shares of a series of BCE Preferred Shares and BCE Converted Preferred Shares may waive certain restrictions under the terms of the BCE Preferred Shares and BCE Converted Preferred Shares with respect to dividends paid on, and redemptions and retirement of, shares ranking junior to the BCE Preferred Shares and BCE Converted Preferred Shares. Under the terms of the Preferred Shares and Converted Preferred Shares, the approval of the holders of two-thirds of a series of Preferred Shares and Converted Preferred Shares would be required.

- Voting Rights. Under the terms of the BCE Preferred Shares and BCE Converted Preferred Shares, holders of BCE Preferred Shares and BCE Converted Preferred Shares are entitled to receive notice of and to attend and vote at meetings of BCE's shareholders in certain circumstances if BCE fails to pay eight (8) quarterly dividend payments (whether or not consecutive). Holders of Preferred Shares and Converted Preferred Shares would have the same rights with respect to a meeting of Prefco's shareholders in the event that Prefco failed to pay six (6) quarterly dividend payments (whether or not consecutive).
- Nomination Rights. Pursuant to a nomination agreement dated March 15, 2011 between the Company and Prefco, holders of each series of Preferred Shares and Converted Preferred Shares have certain rights to select a person to be nominated for election as a director of the Company and the procedures applicable thereto in the event that Prefco fails to pay six (6) quarterly dividends on such series of the Preferred Shares or the Converted Preferred Shares, as applicable. Such nomination rights were granted as a result of the fact that the Preferred Shares and Converted Preferred Shares were issued by Prefco, a special purpose subsidiary of the Company, and not by the Company directly. Given that BCE is the direct issuer of the BCE Preferred Shares and the BCE Converted Preferred Shares, no similar nomination rights will be granted to the holders of BCE Preferred Shares or the BCE Converted Preferred Shares.
- Bell Aliant GP Guarantee. The Preferred Shares and the Converted Preferred Shares are fully and unconditionally guaranteed by Bell Aliant GP as to (a) the payment of dividends, if, as and when declared; (b) the payment of amounts due on redemption of the Preferred Shares and the Converted Preferred Shares; and (c) the payment of amounts due on the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of Prefco. Such guarantee was provided as a result of the fact that the Preferred Shares and Converted Preferred Shares were issued by Prefco, a special purpose subsidiary of the Company. Given that BCE is the direct issuer of the BCE Preferred Shares and the BCE Converted Preferred Shares, no similar guarantee will be granted to the holders of BCE Preferred Shares or the BCE Converted Preferred Shares.

The non-financial terms and conditions of each series of the BCE Preferred Shares are the same as the non-financial terms and conditions of the BCE Series AK Preferred Shares and the non-financial terms and conditions of the BCE Converted Preferred Shares are the same as the non-financial terms and conditions of the BCE Series AL Preferred Shares.

See the Offer Circular for a more detailed description of the specific rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attached to the BCE Preferred Shares and the BCE Converted Preferred Shares.

BCE Second Preferred Shares

The BCE Second Preferred Shares are identical to the BCE First Preferred Shares but are junior to the BCE First Preferred Shares. There are no BCE Second Preferred Shares outstanding.

Dividends and Dividend Policy

The board of directors of BCE reviews from time to time the adequacy of BCE's common share dividend policy. On February 6, 2013, the board of directors of BCE modified BCE's common share dividend policy from a policy with a target dividend payout ratio of 65% to 75% of earnings per share before restructuring and other items and net (gains) losses on investments ("Adjusted EPS") to a policy with a target dividend payout ratio of 65% to 75% of free cash flow. This modification to BCE's dividend policy was adopted as a result of the new IFRS accounting standard for defined benefit pension plan expense which has a significant non-cash impact on Adjusted EPS. BCE now reports its dividend payout ratio on the basis of free cash flow as it is better aligned with the payment of cash dividends.

BCE's dividend policy and the declaration of dividends are subject to the discretion of the board of directors of BCE and, consequently, there can be no guarantee that BCE's dividend policy will be maintained or that dividends will be declared.

CERTAIN CANADIAN FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

In the opinion of Goodmans, counsel to BCE, the following is a summary of the principal Canadian federal income tax considerations under the Income Tax Act (Canada) and the regulations thereunder, as amended (the "Tax Act"), as of the date hereof, generally applicable to a Shareholder who, for purposes of the Tax Act, holds Preferred

Shares and will hold BCE Preferred Shares and any BCE Converted Preferred Shares acquired on a conversion of BCE Preferred Shares as capital property, deals at arm's length with Prefco and BCE, is not affiliated with Prefco or BCE, and who disposes of Preferred Shares pursuant to the Amalgamation or pursuant to certain transactions described above under the heading "Information Regarding the Amalgamation – Dissent Rights" (a "Holder").

Preferred Shares, BCE Preferred Shares and BCE Converted Preferred Shares generally will be considered capital property to a Holder for purposes of the Tax Act unless the Holder holds such shares in the course of carrying on a business of buying and selling securities or the Holder has acquired or holds them in a transaction or transactions considered to be an adventure or concern in the nature of trade.

This summary is based on the current provisions of the Tax Act in force as of the date hereof and counsel's understanding of the current published administrative policies and assessing practices of the Canada Revenue Agency ("CRA") publicly available prior to the date hereof. This summary takes into account all specific proposals to amend the Tax Act that have been publicly announced by or on behalf of the Minister of Finance (Canada) prior to the date hereof (the "Tax Proposals") and assumes that the Tax Proposals will be enacted in the form proposed. No assurance can be given that the Tax Proposals will be enacted in the form proposed, or at all. This summary does not otherwise take into account or anticipate any other changes in law, whether by judicial, governmental or legislative decision or action or changes in the administrative policies or assessing practices of the CRA, nor does it take into account provincial, territorial or foreign income tax legislation or considerations, which may differ materially from those described in this summary.

This summary does not apply to a Holder (a) that is a "financial institution", for the purposes of the mark-to-market rules in the Tax Act, (b) an interest in which is a "tax shelter investment", as defined in the Tax Act, (c) that is a "specified financial institution", as defined in the Tax Act, (d) that has made a "functional currency" election under section 261 of the Tax Act, (e) that has, or will, enter into, with respect to Preferred Shares, BCE Preferred Shares or BCE Converted Preferred Shares, a "derivative forward agreement", as defined in the Tax Act, or (f) that is exempt from tax under Part I of the Tax Act. Furthermore, this summary is not applicable to a Holder that is a corporation that receives or is deemed to receive, alone or together with persons with whom it does not deal at arm's length (and any partnership or trust of which the Holder or any such person is a member or beneficiary), in the aggregate, dividends in respect of more than 10% of any series of Preferred Shares outstanding at the time the dividend is received or deemed to be received. For greater certainty, no consideration has been allocated as consideration for the disposition of the Guarantee Rights. This summary assumes that the Preferred Shares will be listed on a "designated stock exchange" (which currently includes the TSX) at the time of the Amalgamation.

This summary is of a general nature only and is not, and is not intended to be, nor should it be construed to be, legal or tax advice or representations to any particular Holder. This summary is not exhaustive of all Canadian federal income tax considerations. Accordingly, Holders are urged to consult their own legal and tax advisors with respect to the tax consequences to them having regard to their particular circumstances, including the application and effect of the income and other tax laws of any country, province or other jurisdiction that may be applicable to the Holder.

Holders Resident in Canada

This part of the summary is applicable only to a Holder who, for purposes of the Tax Act and any applicable income tax treaty or convention and at all relevant times, is resident, or is deemed to be resident, in Canada (a "Resident Holder").

Certain Resident Holders whose Preferred Shares might not otherwise constitute capital property may be eligible to make an irrevocable election in accordance with subsection 39(4) of the Tax Act to have such shares and every other "Canadian security" (as defined in the Tax Act) owned by such Resident Holder in the taxation year in which the election is made and in all subsequent taxation years be deemed to be capital property. Resident Holders contemplating such an election should first consult their own tax advisors.

No Capital Gain or Capital Loss on Amalgamation

A Resident Holder (other than a Resident Dissenting Holder) will realize no capital gain (or capital loss) when such holder disposes of Preferred Shares of a particular series for BCE Preferred Shares of a particular series pursuant to the Amalgamation. A Resident Holder will be deemed to have disposed of the Preferred Shares of such series for proceeds of disposition equal to the aggregate adjusted cost base to it of such shares immediately before the disposition. Such Resident Holder will be deemed to have acquired the BCE Preferred Shares of such series at an aggregate cost equal to such proceeds of disposition.

If the Resident Holder separately owns other BCE Preferred Shares of such series as capital property at the time of the Amalgamation, the adjusted cost base to the Resident Holder of all BCE Preferred Shares of such series owned by it as capital property immediately after the Amalgamation will be determined by averaging the cost of the BCE Preferred Shares of such series acquired pursuant to the Amalgamation with the adjusted cost base of those other BCE Preferred Shares.

Resident Dissenting Holders

Pursuant to the CRA's current administrative practices, a Resident Dissenting Holder generally will be considered to have disposed of its Preferred Shares in exchange for proceeds of disposition equal to the amount paid by Amalco for such shares, less the amount of any interest awarded by the court. A Resident Dissenting Holder will realize a capital gain (or capital loss) in the amount by which such proceeds of disposition, net of any reasonable costs of disposition, exceed (or are less than) the Resident Dissenting Holder's adjusted cost base of such shares. Such capital gain (or capital loss) generally will be subject to the tax treatment described below under the heading "– Taxation of Capital Gains and Capital Losses". Any interest awarded by a court to a Resident Dissenting Holder will be included in such holder's income.

Dividends on BCE Preferred Shares and BCE Converted Preferred Shares

Dividends on BCE Preferred Shares or BCE Converted Preferred Shares will be included in the recipient's income for the purposes of the Tax Act. Such dividends received by a Resident Holder who is an individual will be subject to the gross-up and dividend tax credit rules in the Tax Act normally applicable to taxable dividends received from taxable Canadian corporations. Provided that appropriate designations are made by BCE at or prior to the time the dividend is paid, such dividend will be treated as an eligible dividend for the purposes of the Tax Act and a Resident Holder who is an individual will be entitled to an enhanced dividend tax credit in respect of such dividend.

In the case of a Resident Holder of BCE Preferred Shares or BCE Converted Preferred Shares that is a corporation, dividends received on such shares will be required to be included in computing the corporation's income for the taxation year in which such dividends are received and will generally be deductible in computing the corporation's taxable income.

BCE Preferred Shares and BCE Converted Preferred Shares will be "taxable preferred shares" as defined in the Tax Act. The terms of the BCE Preferred Shares and BCE Converted Preferred Shares require BCE to make the necessary election under Part VI.1 of the Tax Act so that corporate Holders will not be subject to tax under Part IV.1 of the Tax Act on dividends received (or deemed to be received) on BCE Preferred Shares and BCE Converted Preferred Shares.

Disposition of BCE Preferred Shares and BCE Converted Preferred Shares

A disposition or deemed disposition of a BCE Preferred Share or a BCE Converted Preferred Share by a Resident Holder (other than a disposition to BCE in circumstances other than a purchase by BCE in the open market in the manner in which shares are normally purchased by a member of the public in the open market) will generally result in a capital gain (or a capital loss) to the extent that the proceeds of disposition, net of any reasonable costs of disposition, exceed (or are less than) the adjusted cost base to the holder of such share immediately before the disposition. For a description of the tax treatment of capital gains and capital losses, see "– Taxation of Capital Gains and Capital Losses" below.

Taxation of Capital Gains and Capital Losses

Generally, a Resident Holder will be required to include in computing its income for a taxation year one-half of the amount of any capital gain (a "taxable capital gain") realized by it in that year. A Resident Holder will be required to deduct one-half of the amount of any capital loss (an “allowable capital loss”) realized in a taxation year from taxable capital gains realized by the Resident Holder in that year. Allowable capital losses in excess of taxable capital gains realized in a taxation year may be carried back to any of the three preceding taxation years or carried forward to any subsequent taxation year and deducted against net taxable capital gains realized in such years, subject to and in accordance with the detailed rules contained in the Tax Act.

The amount of any capital loss realized on the disposition of a share by a Resident Holder that is a corporation may, to the extent and under the circumstances specified by the Tax Act, be reduced by the amount of any dividends received or deemed to have been received by the corporation on such share (or on a share for which such share is substituted or exchanged). Similar rules may apply where shares are owned by a partnership or trust of which a corporation, trust or partnership is a member or beneficiary. Resident Holders to whom these rules may be relevant are urged to consult their own tax advisors.

Redemption of BCE Preferred Shares and BCE Converted Preferred Shares

If BCE redeems or otherwise acquires BCE Preferred Shares or BCE Converted Preferred Shares (other than by a purchase in the open market in the manner in which shares are normally purchased by a member of the public in the open market), the Resident Holder will be deemed to have received a dividend equal to the amount, if any, paid by BCE in excess of the paid-up capital (as determined for purposes of the Tax Act) of such shares at such time. Generally, the difference between the amount paid by BCE and the amount of the deemed dividend will be treated as proceeds of disposition for the purposes of computing the capital gain or capital loss arising on the disposition of such shares. For a description of the tax treatment of capital gains and capital losses, see “– Taxation of Capital Gains and Capital Losses” above. In the case of a corporate shareholder, it is possible that in certain circumstances all or part of the deemed dividend may be treated as proceeds of disposition and not a dividend. Having regard to the circumstances of the Amalgamation, the paid-up capital of the BCE Preferred Shares or the BCE Converted Preferred Shares of a particular series may be less than the applicable redemption amount of such shares. In such case, the deemed dividend described above may be increased.

Conversion of BCE Preferred Shares and BCE Converted Preferred Shares

The conversion of a BCE Preferred Share into a BCE Converted Preferred Share or a BCE Converted Preferred Share into a BCE Preferred Share will be deemed not to be a disposition of property and accordingly will not give rise to any capital gain or capital loss. The cost to a Resident Holder of a BCE Converted Preferred Share or a BCE Preferred Share, as the case may be, received on the conversion will be deemed to be equal to the Resident Holder’s adjusted cost base of the converted BCE Preferred Share or BCE Converted Preferred Share, as the case may be, immediately before the conversion.

Additional Refundable Tax and Alternative Minimum Tax

A Resident Holder that is a “private corporation” (as defined in the Tax Act) or any other corporation resident in Canada and controlled, whether because of a beneficial interest in one or more trusts or otherwise, by or for the benefit of an individual (other than a trust) or a related group of individuals (other than trusts), may be liable under Part IV of the Tax Act to pay a refundable tax of 33 1/3% on dividends received to the extent that such dividends are deductible in computing taxable income.

A Resident Holder that is throughout the year a “Canadian-controlled private corporation”, as defined in the Tax Act, may be liable to pay an additional refundable tax of 6 2/3% on certain investment income, including taxable capital gains, interest and certain dividends. Dividends and capital gains realized by a Resident Holder who is an individual or a trust, other than certain specified trusts, will be taken into account in determining liability for alternative minimum tax under the Tax Act.

Eligibility for Investment

The BCE Preferred Shares and the BCE Converted Preferred Shares, provided they are listed on a designated stock exchange (which currently includes the TSX), if issued on the date of this Circular, would be qualified investments under the Tax Act for a trust governed by a Deferred Income Plan.

Notwithstanding that the BCE Preferred Shares and the BCE Converted Preferred Shares may be qualified investments, the holder of a TFSA or the annuitant under an RRSP or RRIF will be subject to a penalty tax in respect of the BCE Preferred Shares and the BCE Converted Preferred Shares and other tax consequences may result if the BCE Preferred Shares and the BCE Converted Preferred Shares are a “prohibited investment” (as defined in the Tax Act) for the TFSA, RRSP or RRIF, as the case may be. The BCE Preferred Shares and the BCE Converted Preferred Shares will generally be a “prohibited investment” if the holder or the annuitant, as the case may be, does not deal at arm’s length with BCE for purposes of the Tax Act or the holder or the annuitant, as the case may be, has a “significant interest” (as defined in the Tax Act) in BCE. In addition, BCE Preferred Shares and BCE Converted Preferred Shares will not be a prohibited investment for a TFSA, RRSP or RRIF if such shares are “excluded property” (as defined in the Tax Act) for such TFSA, RRSP or RRIF. Resident Holders are urged to consult their own tax advisors in this regard.

Holders Not Resident in Canada

This part of the summary is generally applicable to a Holder who, at all relevant times, for purposes of the Tax Act and any applicable income tax treaty or convention, is neither resident nor deemed to be resident in Canada, and does not use or hold, and is not deemed to use or hold, Preferred Shares in connection with carrying on a business in Canada (a “Non-Resident Holder”). This part of the summary is not applicable to Non-Resident Holders that are insurers carrying on an insurance business in Canada and elsewhere. Relief under an applicable income tax treaty or convention may not be available for a Non-Resident Holder that is subject to the proposed “treaty-shopping” rule contained in the 2014 Canadian federal budget released February 11, 2014. On August 29, 2014, the Canadian government announced that it would postpone implementation of this proposal pending recommendations from The Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development. Such Non-Resident Holders are urged to consult their own tax advisors.

No Capital Gain or Capital Loss on Amalgamation

The tax treatment to a Non-Resident Holder (other than a Non-Resident Dissenting Holder) generally will be the same as described above under the heading “Holders Resident in Canada – No Capital Gain or Capital Loss on Amalgamation”.

Non-Resident Dissenting Holders

Pursuant to the CRA’s current administrative practices, a Non-Resident Dissenting Holder generally will be considered to have disposed of such holder’s Preferred Shares in exchange for proceeds of disposition equal to the amount paid by Amalco for such shares, less the amount of any interest awarded by the court. A Non-Resident Dissenting Holder will realize a capital gain (or capital loss) in the amount by which such proceeds of disposition, net of any reasonable costs of disposition, exceed (or are less than) the Non-Resident Dissenting Holder’s adjusted cost base of such shares. A Non-Resident Dissenting Holder who realizes such a capital gain will not be subject to tax under the Tax Act in respect of such capital gain unless such shares constitute “taxable Canadian property” other than “treaty-protected property” (each as defined in the Tax Act). The circumstances in which Preferred Shares may constitute taxable Canadian property generally will be the same as described below under the heading “Holders Not Resident in Canada – Disposition of BCE Preferred Shares and BCE Converted Preferred Shares”. If Preferred Shares constitute “taxable Canadian property” but not “treaty-protected property” to a particular Non-Resident Dissenting Holder, then the tax consequences as described above under the heading “Holders Resident in Canada – Taxation of Capital Gains and Capital Losses” will generally apply to capital gains and capital losses realized in respect of such shares. Any interest awarded by a court to a Non-Resident Dissenting Holder will not be subject to Canadian withholding tax.

Dividends on BCE Preferred Shares and BCE Converted Preferred Shares

Any dividends paid in respect of BCE Preferred Shares or BCE Converted Preferred Shares to a Non-Resident Holder will be subject to Canadian withholding tax at the rate of 25%, subject to any reduction pursuant to an applicable income tax treaty or convention. For example, under the Canada-United States Income Tax Convention (1980), as amended (the “Canada-U.S. Tax Treaty”), where dividends are paid to or derived by a Non-Resident Holder who is a U.S. resident for the purpose of, and who is entitled to the benefits in accordance with the provisions of, the Canada-U.S. Tax Treaty, the applicable rate of Canadian withholding tax generally is reduced to 15%.

Disposition of BCE Preferred Shares and BCE Converted Preferred Shares

A Non-Resident Holder who holds BCE Preferred Shares or BCE Converted Preferred Shares that are not “taxable Canadian property” will not be subject to tax under the Tax Act on the disposition of such shares (other than generally to BCE).

Generally, a BCE Preferred Share or BCE Converted Preferred Share will not be “taxable Canadian property” of a Non-Resident Holder at a particular time provided that such share is listed on a designated stock exchange (which includes the TSX) at that time, unless at any time during the 60-month period immediately preceding the particular time (a) the Non-Resident Holder, persons with whom the Non-Resident Holder did not deal at arm’s length, a partnership in which the Non-Resident Holder or a non-arm’s length person holds a membership interest directly or indirectly through one or more partnerships, or the Non-Resident Holder together with such persons or partnerships, owned 25% or more of the issued shares of any class or series of shares of BCE, and (b) more than 50% of the fair market value of the such share was derived directly or indirectly from one or any combination of real or immovable property situated in Canada, “Canadian resource properties” (as defined in the Tax Act), “timber resource properties” (as defined in the Tax Act), and options in respect of, or interests in, or for civil law rights in, any such properties (whether or not such property exists). Notwithstanding the foregoing, BCE Preferred Shares and BCE Converted Preferred Shares may otherwise, in certain circumstances (including if the Preferred Shares are taxable Canadian property), be deemed to be taxable Canadian property to the Non-Resident Holder for the purposes of the Tax Act. Non-Resident Holders whose BCE Preferred Shares or BCE Converted Preferred Shares may constitute taxable Canadian property are urged to consult their own tax advisors for advice having regard to their particular circumstances.

Even if the BCE Preferred Shares or BCE Converted Preferred Shares are considered to be “taxable Canadian property” to a Non-Resident Holder, a taxable capital gain resulting from the disposition of such shares will not be included in computing the Non-Resident Holder’s income for purposes of the Tax Act if such shares constitute “treaty-protected property”. BCE Preferred Shares or BCE Converted Preferred Shares owned by a Non-Resident Holder will generally be “treaty-protected property” if the gain from the disposition of such shares would, because of an applicable income tax treaty or convention, be exempt from tax under Part I of the Tax Act. Non-Resident Holders who hold BCE Preferred Shares or BCE Converted Preferred Shares that are or may be “taxable Canadian property” are urged to consult their own advisors as to the Canadian income tax consequences of disposing such shares.

In the event that BCE Preferred Shares or BCE Converted Preferred Shares are considered to be taxable Canadian property but not “treaty-protected property” to a particular Non-Resident Holder, the tax consequences as described above under “Holders Resident in Canada – Taxation of Capital Gains and Capital Losses” will generally apply. A Non-Resident Holder who disposes of taxable Canadian property is urged to consult his, her or its own tax advisors regarding any resulting Canadian reporting requirements.

Redemption of BCE Preferred Shares and BCE Converted Preferred Shares

If BCE redeems or otherwise acquires BCE Preferred Shares or BCE Converted Preferred Shares of a Non-Resident Holder (other than by a purchase in the open market in the manner in which shares are normally purchased by a member of the public in the open market), the tax treatment will generally be the same as described above under “Holders Resident in Canada – Redemption of BCE Preferred Shares and BCE Converted Preferred Shares”, except that the resulting deemed dividend, if any, will be subject to the same tax treatment as described above under “Holders Not Resident in Canada – Dividends on BCE Preferred Shares and BCE Converted Preferred Shares”, and the resulting capital gain or loss, if any, will be subject to the same tax treatment as described above under “Holders Not Resident in Canada – Disposition of BCE Preferred Shares and BCE Converted Preferred Shares”.

Conversion of BCE Preferred Shares and BCE Converted Preferred Shares

The conversion of a BCE Preferred Share into a BCE Converted Preferred Share or a BCE Converted Preferred Share into a BCE Preferred Share on the exercise of a conversion privilege by a Non-Resident Holder will generally be subject to the same tax treatment as described above under “Holders Resident in Canada – Conversion of BCE Preferred Shares and BCE Converted Preferred Shares”. On such conversion, any BCE Converted Preferred Shares or BCE Preferred Shares acquired by a Non-Resident Holder in exchange for BCE Preferred Shares or BCE Converted Preferred Shares, as the case may be, that constituted taxable Canadian property to such Non-Resident Holder may be deemed to be taxable Canadian property to such Non-Resident Holder.

RISK FACTORS

In assessing the Amalgamation, Shareholders should carefully consider the risks described in the Offer Circular together with the other information contained in, or incorporated by reference in this Circular. Additional risks and uncertainties not presently known by either Prefco or BCE that it currently believes are not material may also materially and adversely impact the successful completion of the Amalgamation or the business, operations, financial condition, financial performance, cash flows, reputation or prospects of Prefco, BCE or Amalco. In particular, the Amalgamation is subject to certain risks including the following:

The BCE Preferred Shares issued in connection with the Amalgamation may have a market price different than expected.

The exchange ratio will not be adjusted to reflect any changes in the market price of BCE Preferred Shares. As a result, the market prices of BCE Preferred Shares and the Preferred Shares at the Effective Time may vary significantly from the market prices at the dates referenced in this Circular. If the market price of BCE Preferred Shares declines, the value of the consideration received by the Shareholders who receive BCE Preferred Shares pursuant to the Amalgamation will decline as well. Variations in the market price of BCE Preferred Shares may occur as a result of changes in, or market perceptions of changes in, the business, operations or prospects of BCE, general market and economic conditions and other factors over which BCE has no control.

The Amalgamation Agreement may be terminated by Prefco or BCE in certain circumstances, in which case the market price for the Preferred Shares may be adversely affected.

Each of Prefco and BCE has the right to terminate the Amalgamation Agreement in certain circumstances. Accordingly, there is no certainty, nor can Prefco provide any assurance, that the Amalgamation Agreement will not be terminated by either Prefco or BCE before the completion of the Amalgamation. In addition, the completion of the Amalgamation is subject to a number of conditions precedent, certain of which are outside the control of Prefco or BCE. There is no certainty, nor can Prefco provide any assurance, that these conditions will be satisfied. If for any reason the Amalgamation is not completed, the market price of the Preferred Shares may be adversely affected.

COMMITMENTS TO ACQUIRE SECURITIES OF PREFCO

Other than as disclosed elsewhere in this Circular, none of Prefco, nor any of the directors or senior officers of Prefco nor, to the knowledge of such directors or senior officers, after reasonable enquiry, any associate or affiliate of an insider of Prefco, associate or affiliate of Prefco, an insider of Prefco (other than a director or senior officer of Prefco), or person acting jointly or in concert with Prefco, has entered into any commitment, agreement or understanding to acquire any securities of Prefco or any commitment, agreement or understanding with respect to the voting of Preferred Shares in connection with the Amalgamation.

INTERESTS OF CERTAIN PERSONS IN MATTERS TO BE ACTED UPON

Other than as disclosed below, to the knowledge of the directors and senior officers of Prefco, neither BCE nor any individual who has been a director or executive officer of Prefco at any time since the beginning of Prefco's most recently completed financial year, nor any associate or affiliate of any one of them has any material interest, direct or indirect, by way of beneficial ownership of securities or otherwise, in any matter to be acted upon at the Meeting except as disclosed in this Circular.

The Amalgamation will result in Amalco becoming a wholly-owned subsidiary of BCE. Certain directors and officers of Prefco are also directors, officers or employees of, or otherwise have links to, one or both of BCE or Newco, and therefore could be considered as having an interest in the completion of the Amalgamation.

- (c) On or prior to the Effective Date, BCE will deliver to the Depository the aggregate number of BCE Preferred Shares to be issued in accordance with Section 9.
- (d) BCE and Amalco shall cause the Depository, as soon as practicable, and in any event within three days following the later of the Effective Date and the date of deposit with the Depository of the documentation as provided in paragraph (e) of this Section 11, to deliver the applicable BCE Preferred Shares to be issued to the former holders of Prefco Preferred Shares in accordance with the provisions hereof (net of any amounts required to be withheld pursuant to Section 13 hereof).
- (e) If any Shareholder fails for any reason to deliver to the Depository for cancellation the certificates formerly representing Prefco Preferred Shares (or an affidavit of loss and bond or other indemnity pursuant to Section 12 hereof), together with such other documents or instruments required for such holder to receive the applicable consideration for the Prefco Preferred Shares on or before the sixth anniversary of the Effective Date, such holder shall be deemed to have donated and forfeited to Amalco on such sixth anniversary any consideration (together with any dividends and distributions with respect thereto, but net of amounts required to be withheld pursuant to Section 13 hereof) held by the Depositary for such holder.

12. Lost Share Certificates.

In the event any certificate which immediately prior to the Effective Time represented Prefco Preferred Shares shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming such certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed, the Depositary will deliver in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, the consideration to be issued to such person in accordance with such Shareholder's Letter of Transmittal. When authorizing such consideration, the person to whom such consideration is to be issued shall as a condition precedent to the issuance of such consideration, give a bond satisfactory to Amalco, BCE and the Depositary (acting reasonably) in such sum as BCE may direct, or otherwise indemnify Amalco and BCE in a manner satisfactory to Amalco and BCE, acting reasonably, against any claim that may be made against BCE or Amalco with respect to the certificate alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed.

13. Withholding Rights.

Amalco, BCE and/or the Depositary shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from any consideration otherwise payable to any Shareholder, pursuant to the Amalgamation or in connection with any related transaction, such amounts as BCE or the Depositary is required or entitled to deduct and withhold with respect to such payment under the Tax Act or any provision of provincial, state, local or foreign tax law, in each case, as amended or succeeded and subject to the provisions of any applicable income tax treaty between Canada and the country where the holder is resident. To the extent that amounts are so withheld, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes as having been paid to the Shareholder in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made, provided that such withheld amounts are actually remitted in accordance with applicable law to the appropriate taxing authority.

14. Effect of Amalgamation.

As of the Effective Time:

- (a) the amalgamation of the Amalgamating Corporations and their continuance as one corporation becomes effective;
- (b) the property of each of the Amalgamating Corporations (other than the Prefco Preferred Shares held by Newco) continues to be the property of Amalco;
- (c) Amalco continues to be liable for the obligations of each of the Amalgamating Corporations;
- (d) an existing cause of action, claim or liability to prosecution pending by or against an Amalgamating Corporation is unaffected;

- (g) the articles of amalgamation are deemed to be the articles of incorporation of Amalco, and the certificate of amalgamation is deemed to be the certificate of incorporation of Amalco.

15. Representations and Warranties of Prefco.

19. Conditions Precedent – Newco and BCE.

The obligations of Newco and BCE to consummate the Amalgamation are subject to the satisfaction, on or before the Effective Date, of the condition, which may be waived by the mutual consent of Newco and BCE without prejudice to their rights to rely on any other condition, that all representations and warranties of Prefco in this Agreement qualified as to materiality shall be true and correct and those not so qualified shall be true and correct in all material respects or shall not, if not true and correct in all material respects, have a material adverse effect on Prefco, in each case as of the date of this Agreement as if made on and as of such date (except to the extent that such representations and warranties are stated as of an earlier date which representations and warranties shall remain true and correct in all material respects or in all respects, as appropriate, as of that date).

20. Termination.

At any time before the Effective Date, this Agreement may be terminated by the directors of an Amalgamating Corporation, notwithstanding the approval of this Agreement by the shareholders of any or both of the Amalgamating Corporations.

21. Dissenting Shareholders.

SCHEDULE A
RIGHTS, PRIVILEGES, RESTRICTIONS AND CONDITIONS OF AMALCO SHARE CAPITAL

The rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the shares of Amalco shall be as follows:

A. Amalco Common Shares

The Amalco Common Shares shall have attached thereto the following rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions:

1. Dividends

Subject to the rights of the holders of any class of shares of Amalco entitled to receive dividends in priority to or rateably with the holders of the Amalco Common Shares, the holders of the Amalco Common Shares shall be entitled to receive dividends equally, on a share for share basis, if, as and when declared by the Board of Directors of Amalco out of the assets of Amalco properly available for the payment of dividends of such amounts and payable in such manner as the Board of Directors may from time to time determine.

2. Voting Rights

The holders of the Amalco Common Shares shall be entitled to receive notice of and to attend any meeting of the shareholders of Amalco and shall be entitled to one vote in respect of each Amalco Common Share held at such meetings, except a meeting of holders of a class or series of shares other than the Amalco Common Shares who are entitled to vote separately as a class or series at such meeting.

3. Liquidation, Dissolution or Winding-Up

In the event of the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of Amalco, whether voluntary or involuntary, or any other distribution of the property or assets of Amalco among its shareholders for the purpose of winding-up its affairs, the holders of the Amalco Common Shares shall, subject to the rights of the holders of any other class of shares of Amalco entitled to receive the property or assets of Amalco upon such distribution in priority to or rateably with the holders of the Amalco Common Shares, be entitled to share equally, on a share for share basis, in the distribution of property and assets of Amalco.

APPENDIX C SUMMARY OF DISSENT PROVISIONS

Section 190 of the CBCA provides registered shareholders of a corporation with the right to dissent (“Dissent Rights”) from certain resolutions that effect extraordinary corporate transactions or fundamental corporate changes. Any Registered Shareholder who dissents from the Amalgamation Resolution in compliance with section 190 of the CBCA, will transfer their Preferred Shares to Amalco and will, in the event the Amalgamation becomes effective, have a debt claim against Amalco to be paid the fair value of the Preferred Shares held by such Dissenting Shareholder determined as of the close of business on the day before the day the Amalgamation Resolution is approved by Shareholders. Shareholders are cautioned that fair value could be determined to be less than the consideration under the Amalgamation.

Section 190 of the CBCA provides that a shareholder may only make a claim under that section with respect to all of the shares of a class held by the shareholder on behalf of any one beneficial owner and registered in the shareholder’s name. One consequence of this provision is that only a Registered Shareholder may exercise the Dissent Rights in respect of Preferred Shares that are registered in that Shareholder’s name.

In many cases, shares beneficially owned by a Non-Registered Shareholder are registered either: (a) in the name of an Intermediary, or (b) in the name of a clearing agency (such as CDS) of which the Intermediary is a participant. Accordingly, a Non-Registered Shareholder may not be entitled to exercise its Dissent Rights directly. A Non-Registered Shareholder who wishes to exercise Dissent Rights should immediately contact the Intermediary with whom the Non-Registered Shareholder deals in respect of its Preferred Shares and instruct the Intermediary to exercise the Dissent Rights on the Beneficial Holder’s behalf.

A Registered Shareholder who wishes to dissent must provide a notice of dissent (“Dissent Notice”) to Prefco (a) at the Meeting, or (b) if prior to the Meeting (i) at 7 South Maritime Centre, 1505 Barrington Street, Halifax, Nova Scotia, B3J 3K5 (Attention: Corporate Secretary) or (ii) by facsimile transmission to 902-420-3166 (Attention: Corporate Secretary). Failure to strictly comply with these dissent procedures may result in the loss or unavailability of the right to dissent.

The filing of a Dissent Notice does not deprive a Registered Shareholder of the right to vote at the Meeting. However, the CBCA provides, in effect, that a Registered Shareholder who has submitted a Dissent Notice and who votes for the Amalgamation Resolution will no longer be considered a Dissenting Shareholder with respect to that class of shares voted for the Amalgamation Resolution, being the Preferred Shares. The CBCA does not provide, and Prefco will not assume, that a proxy submitted instructing the proxyholder to vote against the Amalgamation Resolution, a vote against the Amalgamation Resolution or an abstention constitutes a Dissent Notice, but a Registered Shareholder need not vote its Preferred Shares against the Amalgamation Resolution in order to dissent. Similarly, the revocation of a proxy conferring authority on the proxyholder to vote for the Amalgamation Resolution does not constitute a Dissent Notice. However, any proxy granted by a Registered Shareholder who intends to dissent, other than a proxy that instructs the proxyholder to vote against the Amalgamation Resolution, should be validly revoked in order to prevent the proxyholder from voting such Preferred Shares in favour of the Amalgamation Resolution and thereby causing the Registered Shareholder to forfeit its Dissent Rights.

Prefco (or its successor) is required, within ten (10) days after Shareholders adopt the Amalgamation Resolution, to notify each Dissenting Shareholder that the Amalgamation Resolution has been adopted. Such notice is not required to be sent to any Shareholder who voted for the Amalgamation Resolution or who has withdrawn its Dissent Notice. A Dissenting Shareholder who has not withdrawn its Dissent Notice prior to the Meeting must then, within twenty (20) days after receipt of notice that the Amalgamation Resolution has been adopted, or if the Dissenting Shareholder does not receive such notice, within twenty (20) days after learning that the Amalgamation Resolution has been adopted, send to Prefco a written notice (a “Demand for Payment”) containing its name and address, the number of Preferred Shares in respect of which he or she dissents (the “Dissenting Preferred Shares”), and a demand for payment of the fair value of such Preferred Shares. Within thirty (30) days after sending the Demand for Payment, the Dissenting Shareholder must send to Prefco or the transfer agent certificates representing Preferred Shares in respect of which he or she dissents.

The transfer agent will endorse on share certificates received from a Dissenting Shareholder a notice that the holder is a Dissenting Shareholder and will forthwith return the share certificates to the Dissenting Shareholder. A Dissenting Shareholder who fails to make a Demand for Payment in the time required or to send certificates representing Dissenting Preferred Shares has no right to make a claim under section 190 of the CBCA.

Under section 190 of the CBCA, a Dissenting Shareholder ceases to have any rights as a Shareholder in respect of its Dissenting Preferred Shares other than the right to be paid the fair value of the Dissenting Preferred Shares, unless (i) the Dissenting Shareholder withdraws its Dissent Notice before Prefco makes an Offer to Pay, or (ii) Prefco fails to make an Offer to Pay in accordance with subsection 190(12) of the CBCA and the Dissenting Shareholder withdraws the Demand for Payment, in which case the Dissenting Shareholder’s rights as a Shareholder will be reinstated.

Prefco is required, not later than seven (7) days after the later of the Effective Date and the date on which a Demand for Payment is received from a Dissenting Shareholder, to send to each Dissenting Shareholder who has sent a Demand for Payment a written offer to pay (“Offer to Pay”) for its Dissenting Preferred Shares in an amount considered by the Board of Directors to be the fair value of the Preferred Shares, accompanied by a statement showing the manner in which the fair value was determined. Every Offer to Pay must be on the same terms. Prefco must pay for the Dissenting Preferred Shares of a Dissenting Shareholder within ten (10) days after an Offer to Pay has been accepted by a Dissenting Shareholder, but any such offer lapses if Prefco does not receive an acceptance within thirty (30) days after the Offer to Pay has been made.

If Prefco fails to make an Offer to Pay for a Dissenting Shareholder’s Preferred Shares, or if a Dissenting Shareholder fails to accept an Offer to Pay that has been made, Prefco may, within fifty (50) days after the Effective Date or within such further period as a court may allow, apply to a court to fix a fair value for the Preferred Shares of the Dissenting Shareholder. If Prefco fails to apply to a court, a Dissenting Shareholder may apply to a court for the same purpose within a further period of twenty (20) days or within such further period as a court may allow. A Dissenting Shareholder is not required to give security for costs in such an application.

If Prefco or a Dissenting Shareholder makes an application to court, Prefco will be required to notify each affected Dissenting Shareholder of the date, place and consequences of the application and of its right to appear and be heard in person or by counsel. Upon an application to a court, all Dissenting Shareholder who have not accepted an Offer to Pay will be joined as parties and be bound by the decision of the court. Upon any such application to a court, the court may determine whether any person is a Dissenting Shareholder who should be joined as a party, and the court will then fix a fair value for the Dissenting Preferred Shares of all Dissenting Shareholders. The final order of a court will be rendered against Prefco in favour of each Dissenting Shareholder for the amount of the fair value of its Dissenting Preferred Shares as fixed by the court.

The court may, in its discretion, allow a reasonable rate of interest on the amount payable to each Dissenting Shareholder from the Effective Date until the date of payment. Registered Shareholders who are considering exercising Dissent Rights should be aware that there can be no assurance that the fair value of their Preferred Shares as determined under the applicable provisions of the CBCA will be more than or equal to the consideration under the Amalgamation. In addition, any judicial determination of fair value will result in delay of receipt by a Dissenting Shareholder of consideration for such Dissenting Preferred Shares.

The foregoing is only a summary of the dissenting holder provisions of the CBCA which are technical and complex. A complete copy of section 190 of the CBCA is attached as Appendix D to this Circular. It is recommended that any Registered Shareholder wishing to avail itself of its Dissent Rights under those provisions seek legal advice, as failure to comply strictly with the provisions of the CBCA may prejudice its Dissent Rights.

APPENDIX D
SECTION 190 – CBCA

Right to dissent

190. (1) Subject to sections 191 and 241, a holder of shares of any class of a corporation may dissent if the corporation is subject to an order under paragraph 192(4)(d) that affects the holder or if the corporation resolves to

(2.1) The right to dissent described in subsection (2) applies even if there is only one class of shares.

Payment for shares

(3) In addition to any other right the shareholder may have, but subject to subsection (26), a shareholder who complies with this section is entitled, when the action approved by the resolution from which the shareholder dissents or an order made under subsection 192(4) becomes effective, to be paid by the corporation the fair value of the shares in respect of which the shareholder dissents, determined as of the close of business on the day before the resolution was adopted or the order was made.

No partial dissent

(4) A dissenting shareholder may only claim under this section with respect to all the shares of a class held on behalf of any one beneficial owner and registered in the name of the dissenting shareholder.

Objection

(5) A dissenting shareholder shall send to the corporation, at or before any meeting of shareholders at which a resolution referred to in subsection (1) or (2) is to be voted on, a written objection to the resolution, unless the corporation did not give notice to the shareholder of the purpose of the meeting and of their right to dissent.

Notice of resolution

(6) The corporation shall, within ten days after the shareholders adopt the resolution, send to each shareholder who has filed the objection referred to in subsection (5) notice that the resolution has been adopted, but such notice is not required to be sent to any shareholder who voted for the resolution or who has withdrawn their objection.

Demand for payment

(7) A dissenting shareholder shall, within twenty days after receiving a notice under subsection (6) or, if the shareholder does not receive such notice, within twenty days after learning that the resolution has been adopted, send to the corporation a written notice containing

- (a) the shareholder's name and address;

- (b) the number and class of shares in respect of which the shareholder dissents; and
- (c) a demand for payment of the fair value of such shares.

Suspension of rights

(11) On sending a notice under subsection (7), a dissenting shareholder ceases to have any rights as a shareholder other than to be paid the fair value of their shares as determined under this section except where

- (a) the shareholder withdraws that notice before the corporation makes an offer under subsection (12),
- (b) the corporation fails to make an offer in accordance with subsection (12) and the shareholder withdraws the notice, or
- (c) the directors revoke a resolution to amend the articles under subsection 173(2) or 174(5), terminate an amalgamation agreement under subsection 183(6) or an application for continuance under subsection 188(6), or abandon a sale, lease or exchange under subsection 189(9), in which case the shareholder's rights are reinstated as of the date the notice was sent.

Offer to pay

(12) A corporation shall, not later than seven days after the later of the day on which the action approved by the resolution is effective or the day the corporation received the notice referred to in subsection (7), send to each dissenting shareholder who has sent such notice

- (a) a written offer to pay for their shares in an amount considered by the directors of the corporation to be the fair value, accompanied by a statement showing how the fair value was determined; or
- (b) if subsection (26) applies, a notification that it is unable lawfully to pay dissenting shareholders for their shares.

Same terms

(13) Every offer made under subsection (12) for shares of the same class or series shall be on the same terms.

Payment

(14) Subject to subsection (26), a corporation shall pay for the shares of a dissenting shareholder within ten days after an offer made under subsection (12) has been accepted, but any such offer lapses if the corporation does not receive an acceptance thereof within thirty days after the offer has been made.

Corporation may apply to court

(15) Where a corporation fails to make an offer under subsection (12), or if a dissenting shareholder fails to accept an offer, the corporation may, within fifty days after the action approved by the resolution is effective or within such further period as a court may allow, apply to a court to fix a fair value for the shares of any dissenting shareholder.

Shareholder application to court

(16) If a corporation fails to apply to a court under subsection (15), a dissenting shareholder may apply to a court for the same purpose within a further period of twenty days or within such further period as a court may allow.

Venue

(17) An application under subsection (15) or (16) shall be made to a court having jurisdiction in the place where the corporation has its registered office or in the province where the dissenting shareholder resides if the corporation carries on business in that province.

No security for costs

(18) A dissenting shareholder is not required to give security for costs in an application made under subsection (15) or (16).

Parties

(19) On an application to a court under subsection (15) or (16),

- (a) all dissenting shareholders whose shares have not been purchased by the corporation shall be joined as parties and are bound by the decision of the court; and
- (b) the corporation shall notify each affected dissenting shareholder of the date, place and consequences of the application and of their right to appear and be heard in person or by counsel.

Powers of court

(20) On an application to a court under subsection (15) or (16), the court may determine whether any other person is a dissenting shareholder who should be joined as a party, and the court shall then fix a fair value for the shares of all dissenting shareholders.

Appraisers

(21) A court may in its discretion appoint one or more appraisers to assist the court to fix a fair value for the shares of the dissenting shareholders.

Final order

(22) The final order of a court shall be rendered against the corporation in favour of each dissenting shareholder and for the amount of the shares as fixed by the court.

Interest

(23) A court may in its discretion allow a reasonable rate of interest on the amount payable to each dissenting shareholder from the date the action approved by the resolution is effective until the date of payment.

Notice that subsection (26) applies

(24) If subsection (26) applies, the corporation shall, within ten days after the pronouncement of an order under subsection (22), notify each dissenting shareholder that it is unable lawfully to pay dissenting shareholders for their shares.

Effect where subsection (26) applies

(25) If subsection (26) applies, a dissenting shareholder, by written notice delivered to the corporation within thirty days after receiving a notice under subsection (24), may

- (a) withdraw their notice of dissent, in which case the corporation is deemed to consent to the withdrawal and the shareholder is reinstated to their full rights as a shareholder; or
- (b) retain a status as a claimant against the corporation, to be paid as soon as the corporation is lawfully able to do so or, in a liquidation, to be ranked subordinate to the rights of creditors of the corporation but in priority to its shareholders.

Limitation

(26) A corporation shall not make a payment to a dissenting shareholder under this section if there are reasonable grounds for believing that

- (a) the corporation is or would after the payment be unable to pay its liabilities as they become due; or
- (b) the realizable value of the corporation's assets would thereby be less than the aggregate of its liabilities.
